The screenshot shows the GitHub 'Merge pull request' interface. At the top, a green button labeled 'Merge pull request' is visible. Below it, a list of branch protection rules is displayed. The first rule, 'Require approval from specific reviewers before merging', is highlighted with a green background. The second rule, 'Continuous integration has not been set up', is highlighted with a yellow background. The third rule, 'This branch has no conflicts with the base branch', is highlighted with a green background. The 'Merge pull request' button is also highlighted with a green background.
